PRISCILLA JANE KASTLER

Priscilla Jane Hitchcock was born on March 27, 1927, the daughter of C. W. and Berle Comfort Hitchcock, at Creston, Iowa. She received her education in Creston, graduating from Creston High School in 1944. Following her graduation, she taught grade school in Creston. She was united in marriage to John Kastler of Woolstock on March 27, 1948 at Story City. The couple made their home near Woolstock, prior to moving to Osceola in 1963. She returned to school in 1971, attending Southwest Community College where she received her LPN degree in Nursing. She was employed in the pediatrics ward of Broadlawns Medical Center in Des Moines until 1975. She then began working at the Osceola Leisure Manor Nursing Home until her retirement in 1985. John Kastler died on November 5, 1990.

Priscilla Jane Kastler died at her home in Osceola on April 25, 1995 at the age of 68 years and 28 days.

Survivors include her sons, Monte Kastler, Osceola and John Kastler of Cherokee; daughters, Connie Kastler of Duncombe, Cyndi Kastler and Jane Kastler, both of Osceola; and four grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and one brother, Bill Hitchcock.

Funeral services for Priscilla Jane Kastler were held on Friday, April 28, 1995, at the Chapel of the Willim Funeral Home in Eagle Grove. The Reverend Neville Clayton officiated the 10 a.m. service. Burial was in Graceland Cemetery, Webster City, Iowa.

Willim Funeral Home of Eagle Grove was in charge of arrangements.

MRS. H. KASTLER PASSED ON LAST FRIDAY MORNING

—o—

Woolstock Lady Attained Age of 83 Years, 11 Months and
1 Day Before Fatal
Illness.

—o—

Mrs. Henry Kastler died at the home of her son, John Kastler, in Woolstock township, early last Friday morning. She has been a resident of Woolstock township for 58 years, and until the time of her fatal illness, made her home on her own farm. She came to Woolstock township with her husband and settled on the old Kastler homestead, and for 58 years lived on the same farm. At that time there were but two houses between their own and Webster City. Mrs. Kastler was in every sense a pioneer. She was born in France and came to America when she was 17 years of age. Crossing the ocean and learning a new language and adopting new customs, being her first bit of pioneering. The following, very fitting obituary was read at the funeral services which were held at the French church, which is located on the Kastler homestead.

HERBERT SCHUTT

Herbert Christian Joseph Schutt was born January 17, 1912, the son of Christian and Emma Loux Schutt near Woolstock. He received his education in a country school near Woolstock.

He was united in marriage to Irene C. Decker of St. Louis, Mo., on March 28, 1938 at St. Louis. The couple made their home northeast of Woolstock where he was a widely known area farmer. He worked many years as a mechanic for George L. Jones & Sons in Woolstock and operated a corn shelling and trucking business. Mrs. Schutt died in 1989.

Mr. Schutt was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Woolstock, and was the last surviving charter member of the church having served for 20 years as an elder. He was a member of the Farmers Co-op, Woolstock, and served on the board of directors for the Woolstock Telephone Company.

Herbert Christian Joseph Schutt died June 10, 1992 at his home near Woolstock. He had attained the age of 80 years, four months, and 24 days.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; grandson, Steven Eide; great-grandson, David Long; two brothers, Buster; infant brother, George; and one sister, Emma Potter.

He is survived by a son, Raymond of Woolstock; one daughter, Phyllis Eide of Woolstock; five brothers, Charles, Des Moines; Martin, Hampton; Ilo, Woolstock; Deslyn, Clarion; Eldred, Clarion; and one sister, Hazel Brock, Woolstock; four grandchildren, Russell Eide, Webster City; Jolene McFarland, Duncombe; Pamela Wagner, Woolstock; and Patti Schutt, Webster City; and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, June 13, at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Woolstock, with the Rev. Mark Buchhop officiating the 1:30 p.m. services. Burial was in the French Cemetery, Woolstock.

Kastler-Babcock Services, Eagle Grove, was in charge of the arrangements.

Irene E. Schutt 1989

Word has been received of the death of Irene Emma Schutt, 75, Woolstock, who died at her home on Sunday, March 26. Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 29, at 1:30 p.m. at the St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Woolstock, Rev. Mark Buchhop, Webster City, officiating. Burial was in the French Cemetery, Woolstock.

Irene Emma Decker, daughter of Theodore and Regina Werner Decker, was born Sept. 1, 1913, in St. Louis, Mo., where she received her education. She was employed by the Superior Electric Co., St. Louis, at the age of 14, and was employed by that company until her marriage to Herbert C. Schutt of Woolstock, on March 28, 1938, in St. Louis. The couple moved to their present farm home northeast of Woolstock after their marriage.

Mrs. Schutt had suffered from a brain tumor for the past year.

She is survived by her husband Herbert, Woolstock; son Raymond, Woolstock; daughter Phyllis Eide, Fort Dodge; five sisters, Leona Decker, St. Louis, Mo.; Ruth (Mrs. Chester) Fish, St. Louis, Mo.; Nora (Mrs. Walter) Otto, Branson, Mo.; Ellen Bradvogel, Carlinville, Ill.; and Edna (Mrs. Charles) Schutt, Blairsburg; four grandchildren, Russell Eide, Stanhope; Jolene Long, Webster City; Pamela Wagner and Patti Schutt, both of Woolstock; and four great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, an infant sister, grandson Steven Eide, and great-grandson David Long.

Mrs. Schutt was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Woolstock, and was a widely-known quilter.

Obituary of Harry Craig

Harry Burton Craig, son of W. A. and Anna Craig was born on a farm west of Woolstock, Aug. 20, 1903; and passed away at the Mercy hospital at Mason City at 3:05 p. m. June 9, 1930, being at the time of his death, 26 years, 9 months and 19 days of age.

He grew to manhood in this vicinity, attending the public schools in Woolstock and in the country nearby.

He was married Dec. 3, 1924 at Hampton to Arba Rhiner of Eagle Grove. Two children were born to this union, Don Burton and Etta Jean, both of whom have preceded him in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig resided in both Eagle Grove and Woolstock since their marriage, with the exception of four months during which time they lived in St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. Craig's death was caused by injuries received in an auto accident at 11:20 p. m., Friday, June 6, near Garner, Iowa.

He leaves to mourn his untimely death, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Craig, his wife, Arba Craig, and many sorrowing relatives and friends. One brother, Leonard Craig, preceded him in death in February, 1924.

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assumed alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar
No harm from Him can come to me,
On ocean or on shore.

Services were held at the M. E. Community church, Wednesday at 2:00 o'clock. Interment was made in the Webster City cemetery. The Rev. William Baddeley was in charge.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown us during our bereavement.

Mrs. Harry Craig
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Craig and relatives.

Mrs. Claude Dies at 70

Longhenry-Kastler Wedding Held in St. Paul's Church 8/31/57

Gorman, Photo Service

The St. Paul's Lutheran church was decorated with baskets of white gladiola, pompons and white candelabra for the wedding of Delores Mary Longhenry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Longhenry of Stratford, and Robert Keith Kastler, son of Mrs. Frank Smalley of Webster City and Ed Kastler of Woolstock.

Rev. H. H. Schauland performed the double ring wedding service at eight o'clock, Aug. 31, with relatives and close friends as guests.

Miss Louise Blankenbuehler provided organ music and accompanied the soloist, JoAnn Kastler as she sang "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride wore a waltz length gown of nylon tulle over satin. Re-embroidered, softly scalloped lace, fashioned the neckline set with tiny clusters of rhinestones. Narrow bands of satin encircled the bouffant skirt which was adorned with clusters of re-embroidered lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from a crown of seeded pearls and sequins. The Bible she carried was white and on it rested a white orchid, pink sweetheart roses and pink and white satin streamers.

Miss Penola Jo Ewing served as maid of honor wearing a ballerina length dress of coral nylon chiffon over taffeta, princess style, with an empire waistline. The Grecian draped collar extended into two floating panels in the back. Her headpiece was a pink halo with pearl detail and pearl trim accenting the circular veil. She carried white pompons and pink sweetheart roses.

Alan Shehorn was best man. The ushers were Melvin Longhenry and Lyle Westrum, brother and brother-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Longhenry was attired in a beige lace dress with pink accessories. Mrs. Smalley wore a brown shantung dress with beige accessories. Both had a corsage of red roses. A grandmother, Mrs. Baker, wore white carnations.

The couple went to Clear Lake on their wedding trip and are now residing at 635 Odell St. The bride wore a beige cotton knit sheath dress with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Kastler will continue working in the office of the Northwestern Bell telephone company. Mr. Kastler is employed as parts manager at Sandvig's Pontiac garage.
