

KASTLER

From our humble beginnings in a far away mysterious land. From tiny houses with native stone wall fences that formed the boundaries of these small communities like Belmont, Hovalt, and Bellefosse.

From the high mountain tops of France that border Germany, to the seam'y side of Passy (Paris). Our ancestors laboured for their daily bread and left their mark upon the face of history. Some stayed behind and some moved on to find their dreams. From these brave souls we were born. If we can keep alive for a few more years their adventures, their joys and their remembrances, we will have paid them honor and can consider that we were blessed to be a part of them.

GOD GRANT THEM PEACE

In the 1950's my mother, Emma Augustine Kastler, Triebel asked me to help her make a record of all of her family, her brothers and sisters and all their children, grandchildren etc. Their birthdates, death dates, marriages, and so we began our task. It turned out that this was not a task to be completed but an accomplishment of joy and love. I soon became addicted to the wonder of finding out new things about our family. This un-ending search is like a circle, there is no end and no beginning. To my Mother, who gave me the inspiration to start this record of our Kastler family, I will always be thankful, and to each of you who sent your information to us, and were so kind and patient with me I say "Thank You", without your help our little family record would have all blank pages.
Norma Lee Triebel, LaDuke

Alene Kastler, Lawson sent this poem to me and I liked it and thought you might enjoy it too. The Geneology Bug by Marcy Hage:

You follow many dead end trails, as you search through dusty files.
You weaken your eyes with microfilm, and travel for miles and miles.
You rummage through church records, and interview over the phone.
You look for Grandma's marriage, and find she had children alone!
You write many unanswered letters, to people across the sea.
You find your Great Uncle Zanzibar, was hung for shooting Aunt Bea.
You ignore ~~the~~ dust and dishes, You never vacuum the rug.
You've caught a disease that has no cure, You have the geneology bug!

So you can see how it really is. With this in mind, will you please forgive me for the mistakes and typo's I have made? I know there are some in here.

DEATH OF A PIONEER

Mrs. David Kastler Dies at the Home of Her Daughter, April 17, 1896 -- She
Was a Resident of this Vicinity
Over Half a Century

Mrs. David Kastler died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lester Rohrer, at five o'clock Friday morning, April 17, 1896, at the advanced age of 88 years, 8 months and 23 days. Last December Mrs. Kastler fell on an icy porch and sustained injuries from which she never recovered. She continued to fail in health until the angel of death removed her from our midst.

Deceased was born at Belma (they meant Belmont) in Elsass (they mean Alsace), Germany, July 24, 1807. Being a child of Christian parents she was reared to womanhood under Christian influences and taught to fear, love and trust in the Savior above all things. She has always been a consistent and sincere believer in the German Lutheran Church and her complete resignation to the will of God was but the exponent of her noble life. But few approach death as she did, with such perfect assurance and confidence that hers was with the Heavenly Host hereafter.

At the age of eighteen years she was married to August Kastler. The ties that bound together this happy couple were torn assunder by the death of Mr. Kastler after a brief marriage life. To this couple there was born one daughter, who preceded her mother to the other shore. A few years later Mrs. Kastler was united in marriage to Mr. David Kastler, a cousin of her first husband. To this union there were born five children, four of whom are left to mourn her death. In 1844 they emigrated to America and settled in this vicinity. Ten years after their arrival in this country Mrs. Kastler was again made a widow and during the forty-one years that elapsed since her husband's death she resided with her children. The last three years of her life were spent with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rohrer, of this village, who did everything possible for her comfort and pleasure.

The children who survive her are: Louis, who resides southwest of Somonauk; Henry, of Woolstock, Iowa; Mrs. George Schafman, of Chicago, and Mrs. Lester Rohrer, of this village, all of whom were present at the funeral. There were also present Alfred Schafman of Chicago and Julien Claude of Woolstock, Iowa.

The funeral occurred at the German Lutheran Church at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Services were conducted by the pastor Rev. Staehling, who selected for his text Psalm 23. A large concourse of relatives and friends followed her remains to its final resting place at the German Lutheran Cemetery.

She was born March 12, 1819 at Hovelt, Alsac Lorraine, France and died Dec. 2, 1879 and is buried in the French Cemetery at Woolstock, Iowa.

I was unable to attain a Death Certificate for her as death records were not required to be kept by the state of Iowa at that time.

All of their children were born in France, possibly near or in the town of Hovelt. They all came to America with their Mother and Father and settled first in Somanauk, Illinois and later moved to Wright County, Iowa and settled near the town of Woolstock. Mary Louise was nine years old when they made the long voyage to America. They came to America in 1865. I can recall Grandmother speaking of the time spent on board the ship and of the tragedy of seeing the small boy being lost over the side of the ship and the sharks gathering near. That must have been an image she carried with her all her life.

Their Children were:

I do not know if Louis Loux was the oldest child or just when he was born. I do know that Mary Louise was the youngest child.

Louis Loux took a team of horses and a wagon and left home when he was a young man. He was never heard of again by any of the family that I know of. There has been much speculation concerning this young man, and the latest bit that I heard was that he may have gone back to France.

She was the daughter of Theophile Theodore Loux and Emilie Frederique Claude, Loux. In 1893 She and her husband Charles Kastler left their family and friends in Iowa and traveled by train to the Indian Territory now known as Oklahoma. My mother Emma Augustine Kastler, Triebel was the first child born after the move to the Indian Territory. She was born on what has always been called "The Wolfe Place" which is just a few short miles south of the Bert Triebel farm where Mom and Dad lived most of their married lives. About 1902 or 1903 the family moved to the home on Snow Creek, which is located three miles southeast of Valeda, Kansas. This is the Kastler family home, from which so many of we grandchildren, learned about and lived the wonderful stories that are being brought to mind with each passing year. These were wonderful years and so very well worth remembering and recalling to each other. What a wonderfully, loving grandmother we had, Our Mary Louise Loux, Kastler, born in the spring time in 1859 in a little village in France.

Charles Louis Muller was 10 years old when he arrived in America with his parents and four sisters. They arrived in New Orleans on the sailboat, the Montazel. He is the son of Charles Muller b.Mar.11,1840 at LaHutte, Alsace, France. d. Dec. 23, 1932. buried at Altamont, Ks. Charle Muller m. Louise Caroline Morel in July 1869 in France, she was b. April 28,1834 at Belmont, France d. Oct. 29, 1923 in Indian Territory.

Charles Louis's paternal grandfather was Gideon Muller b. 1795 d. 1863 in France, his paternal grandmother was Catherine Elizabeth Bernard b. 1800 d.ca.1872. (Catherine Elizabeth Bernard was the daughter of Joshua Bernard and Catherine Elizabeth Muller) Charles Louis's paternal grandparents were, Joshua Muller and Janette Marchal, both were born and buried in France. Charles Louis Muller's maternal lines were that he was the grandson of George Fortune Morel b.ca 1808 at Belmont, Alsac, France d. May 12, 1870 at Belmont, France. on Oct. 23, 1832 he m. Rene Philanel Hazemann who was b. 1811 d. May 14, 1874. Charles Louis's maternal great grandparents were George Michel Morel b. 1808 Nevilaire, France d. ca 1870 and Fidelite Caroline Werly d. France. Rene Philanel Hazeman was the daughter of Jacques George Hazemann and Concorde Spenle and the granddaughter of Mathia Hazemann and Sara Bernard. Charles Louis Muller's father was a brother to Marie Louise Muller who married Louis August Kastler, a soldier in the army of Napoleon and a nephew of our Martin Theodore Kastler. Charles Louis Muller is a brother to Lucy Muller who married Gustave "Gus" Banzet and is related to all of us through the Muller and Kastler lines. It is because of our beloved friend and neighbor (of the Bert Triebel family) Lucy Muller, Banzet and her devotion to keeping her family records that we have been able to know much of what is written here about the Muller, Kastler lines. Lucy's husband Gus Banzet was the son of Louisa Catherine Kastler and the Grandson of John David Kastler and the great grandson of Emanuel Kastler and Catherine Morel. and the great grandson of Joseph Muller and Jeanne Mayer. There are records to indicate that Joseph Muller and (Lucy's) Joshua Muller were either brothers or cousins, no proof to date. This would be the connection that makes Lucy and Gus cousins of one generation or another.

Josephine Caroline Kastler (Josephine Caroline Kastler)

b. April 15, 1886 at Woolstock, Wright County, Iowa

d. July 17, 1893 and is buried in the French Cemetery east of Woolstock, Iowa next to the graves of her maternal grandparents Theophile Theodore Loux and Emilie Frederique Claude.

Her parents moved with their young family from Woolstock, Iowa to the Indian Territory (now Oklahoma) in December of that same year 1893.

Josephine was only 7 years old when she died, and the cause of death is unknown. I had always been told that she died of Caster Bean poisoning or perhaps appendicitis. Information came to me from Iowa that she had been operated on for appendicitis by a local doctor at the family home in Iowa, and did not survive the operation.

In the curiosity of my mind, I began to look for reasons as to why a person was given that particular name. As was the custom in years past, parents named their children for one of their loved relatives for example, why was Martin Theophile Kastler given those names? then I learned that he was named for his two grandfathers, Martin Kastler and Theophile Loux. Louise Eugenie Kastler, Muller was named for her grandmother Louise Eugenie Groshens, etc. So it would follow that Josephine was named for her step Grandmother Louise Josephine Bernard who married Martin Kastler in 1845.

The French Church, where Josephine Caroline Kastler is buried is located 4 miles east of Woolstock, Iowa and the French Cemetery is located in the church yard just East of that little church. The land for that church was given by a Henry Kastler, a nephew of our Great Grandfather Martin Kastler.

HENRY KASTLER OBITUARY from an Iowa paper of May 1902:

Henry Kastler, one of the oldest and most substantial citizens of this section, died at his home four miles east of Woolstock, on Saturday, May 24, at five-o'clock. Deceased was about sixty-four years of age. He was born in France, coming to this country with his parents when six years old. He had lived continuously for thirty-two years on the farm where he died, which is one of the most desirable homes in the county. A wife and 11 children survive to mourn his death. The funeral was held at the French Church Tuesday afternoon by the pastor. A large concourse of sympathizing friends attended to pay their last respects to the memory of a friend and neighbor.

The French Lutheran Church was built in 1896 by people who came to Wright County, Iowa from Alsace Lorraine, France.

The Grandson of Henry Kastler now lives on what is known as the Kastler Homestead. He is Robert Clifford Kastler who is married to Gladys Mae Loux. Gladys is the Grandaughter of Theophile John Loux (a brother to our own Mary Louise Loux, Kastler)
