

The image features a stylized, black and white illustration of an oak tree branch. The branch starts on the left side, extending upwards and then curving to the right. It has several large, detailed oak leaves with prominent veins. A small cluster of three acorns hangs from the branch. The entire illustration is rendered in a halftone or stippled style, giving it a textured appearance. The title "THE KASTLER FAMILY TREE" is centered within the frame created by the branch and leaves.

THE KASTLER FAMILY TREE

PREFACE

This book is an attempt to show as many descendants as possible of our emigrant ancestors. Since it begins with Ulrick Kastler Jr., he has been given the number 1. His children are numbered in the order of their birth, 1-1, 1-2, 1-3, etc. The children of each of these are numbered 1-1-1, 1-1-2, 1-1-3: 1-2-1, 1-2-2, 1-2-3, etc. In this way each person's line can be traced back numerically, generation by generation. Therefore, the number of digits in a persons's number tells you their generation: ie., on digit, first generation: two digits, second generation: three digits, third generation, etc.

When a middle name is underlined or added in parentheses, that is the name by which the person was or is best known.

It would be appreciated if the readers would inform us of corrections and additions to this work for we strive to keep errors to a minimum.

THE KASTLERS

"From our humble beginnings in a far away mysterious land. From tiny houses with native stone wall fences that formed the boundaries of these small communities like Belmont, Hovalt, and Bellefosse. From the high mountain tops of France that border Germany, to the seamy side of Passy (Paris). Our ancestors laboured for their daily bread and left their mark upon the face of history. Some stayed behind and some moved on to find their dreams. From these brave souls we were born. If we can keep alive for a few more years their adventures, their joys and their remembrances, we will have paid them honor and can consider that we were blessed to be a part of them".

THE FIRST GENERATION

ULRICK (Ulrique) KASTLER (Castler) moved his family from Switzerland to France. He had a son named after himself, Ulric Kastler II. It is with this son that we begin numbering the descendants.

John David served as a soldier under Napoleon. In 1844 the family, including Paisible's daughter by a previous marriage (also named Paisible) came to America. "They went from their home in France to a port by wagon. Then they took a sailboat on which they had to cook their own meals. After landing in America they went by wagon and boat to Illinois, settling near Sandwich. Three years later near LeLand they homesteaded land at $1.25 an acre. The land was sold out of the Kastler family in 1947."

"The late Louis A. Kastler, who was a well-known farmer of Woolstock township, was born in Alsac, France on September 16, 1826 and lived in his native country until 1865, when he came to America. In his native country Louis A. Kastler was a farmer, he also having been a soldier of the French Army for fourteen years during which time he served in the Italian and Austrian wars of the fifties, as well as having served in the French army in Africa for four years.

Following his arrival in America Louis A. Kastler located in Dekalb County, Illinois, where he engaged in farming until 1872, when he came to Wright county, Iowa and bought eighty acres of land in Woolstock township a place which Mr. Kastler eveloped from raw prairie to a well improved and highly cultivated farm of five hundred and eighty acres."

Born in France, Henry came to the USA with his parents when he was about 6 years old. They settled near Somonauk, Ill. where he married Louise Marshall. She was born in France, coming to this country when she was 22 years old. About 1870 they moved to Iowa, settling 4 miles east of Woolstock. This farm remains in the family (1991). The family gave the land for what is called "The French Church" and "The French Cemetery".
